Hi Michael,

I peaked in on the clothi RA today. I added a couple comment bubbles on pgs 14, 31, 37, and 44. Pretty minor items in the grand scheme. What an impressive piece of work!

Hi Mark and Sujatha,

Attached are clean (mostly) and marked-up versions of the clothi/thia RAs from when you saw them all the way back before the shut down (gasp!). The non-Ag section is something that you have not seen before. There are a couple items/comments left in the clean version—most of them are just responses to some of Mark's comments that I thought he might want to see (e.g. poultry house section), but a few are also questions from us to you (e.g. see incident section) and 1-2 are remaining small items that we decided should also be done (e.g. I need to add some stuff to the ornamental graphs).

Thanks,
